

AT THE MANGER

An angel came from heaven to tell of Jesus' birth.

The baby born to Mary would bring joy to the earth.

Joseph went with Mary

to pay the Roman tax.

and parallel with the

To Bethlehem they traveled.

Mary rode on a donkey's back.

The journey was a long one,

and when they reached the town,

there were no rooms to stay in except a stable brown.

The baby boy in a manger,

in that stable dark and small brought light into the world and hope and joy for all!

The shepherds came to honor him.

The wise men traveled long.

The glory of God was with him,

and he grew up
wise and strong.

At the Manger

Third Printing, 1999

© 1991 by Virginia Theological Seminary and Morehouse Publishing

All rights reserved. No part of this book may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form or by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise, without the written permission of the publisher.

Developed by Virginia Theological Seminary
Center for the Ministry of Teaching 3737 Seminary Road
Alexandria, VA 22304

Shell Year—Preschool/Kindergarten
Copyright © 1991 Virginia Theological Seminary and Morehouse Publishing

Shell Year, Preschool/Kindergarten, Unit II
Text by Amelia G. Dyer, Ph.D.
Illustrations by Elizabeth Wolf