The Impact of Your Gifts

One cannot help but marvel at this Annual Report. Each person named in the Report took the decision to make a gift to Virginia Theological Seminary. Each dollar that comes to the Seminary feeds into programming for the Church—most directly in the education of seminarians for leadership in the church or opportunities for growth in the TryTank or Lifelong Learning. When a gift supports programming, the ripples are considerable. Take, for example, the seminarian who becomes a priest in the Episcopal Church—your gift makes possible the skilled preacher and the sensitive pastor. Your gift makes it possible for a congregation to grow; and for those who are dying to have a pastoral presence. Each gift ripples out so that tens of thousands of people—hundreds of thousands—are impacted.

We are coming to an end of the largest capital campaign in the Seminary's history. It has been an extraordinary journey. Even during a pandemic, our friends have recognized that the Church matters. And if the Church matters, then making sure that Virginia Theological Seminary remains strong matters as well. My heart bubbles over with gratitude as I reflect on this campaign.

Our donors get that the Seminary is an investment. We do not need your dollars to survive. But we do need your support to make a difference. Allow me please to lift up one illustration of generosity. We all agree that the future of any tradition depends on the involvement of children—future generations must be part of the continuing story of our tradition. In addition, the Gospels are clear: we must continue to learn from children—they model participation in the Kingdom of God. So, we were excited when the Rev. Dr. Jerome W. Berryman offered the Seminary an endowed chair in children's spirituality and nurture. This extraordinary gift created a $2,000,000 endowment that strengthens our historic commitment to Christian formation. We will become the first Seminary to engage a professor whose research, teaching and advocacy is devoted to children's spirituality and nurture. The search has started; we will have a professor by fall of 2022.

The Seminary has served for two hundred years; now thanks to you, we can ensure that the Seminary is able to serve the Church for the next two hundred years. May it all be to the Glory of God.

The Very Rev. Ian S. Markham, Ph.D.
Dean and President

From the Board Chair

I care about impact. Virginia Theological Seminary affects our church and the world. The residential programs are deep and rich, and the Seminary's reach with educational and spiritual offerings beyond the campus impacts tens of thousands. In this Annual Report, you will see many of our impact numbers, including data on our alumni, numbers from Lifelong Learning offerings, and the TryTank, to name a few.

We entered this fiscal year under the COVID shroud, unsure that our donors would continue giving to VTS. We had a significant opportunity for the Bishop Payne Library because of two challenge grants, one from the Cabell Foundation and the other from the Mary Morton Parsons Foundation. We needed to raise $1,000,000 to “unlock” $500,000 from the two foundations. With a deadline of November 2020, our development team focused on the challenge, turning our October Giving Day's usual focus on the Annual Fund into an opportunity to meet the matches. Our alumni and friends responded generously. We met the challenge and received $500,000 for renovations to the Library.

Generosity such as that for the Library continued throughout the year. As Board Chair, I am grateful for all that everyone does to help VTS now and as we prepare for our next century of service.

Dr. David H. Charlton

Chair of the Board of Trustees

From the Treasurer

In Fiscal Year 2021, VTS continued to rise to meet challenges and exceed and outperform expectations. While COVID restrictions continued to pinch some areas like travel, we were able to end the year with a surplus. This shows the strength and resilience of our institution and especially our leadership team. Gifts continued to come in for our signature areas: the Annual Fund and the Bicentennial Campaign. This generosity reflects the extraordinary work of our institutional advancement team led by Vice President Linda Dienno.

The statements also reflect the exemplary care of Vice President Jacqueline Ballou and her team, who carefully monitor and help steward VTS’ assets. They show that VTS remains financially strong and will continue to make a significant difference in the Episcopal Church and the world. As treasurer, I am deeply honored to work with these committed and visionary teams serving VTS in many different capacities and ministries.

From the Vice President of Institutional Advancement

This annual report shows extraordinary giving in an uncommon time. We started this fiscal year with COVID weighing heavily on our minds and affecting everyone I know in one way or another. My grandson experienced his first year of college under social distancing, masking, and online teaching. My husband remarked that his experience was not “normal.” And yet, for this time we are in, it was. Life has moved along even with COVID’s backdrop.

This annual report proves just how moved many were to give to Virginia Theological Seminary in the past fiscal year. Our gratitude is profound for our alumni and friends who continue to share from their hearts. I must also express gratitude for the VTS staff. I am honored to say that staff from every department at VTS participated in the Annual Fund and the Bicentennial Campaign. VTS Communications deserves a special “shout-out.” The work of Elizabeth Panox-Leach, Curtis Prather, and Christin Lazo helped us tell our story through social media and print. The Bicentennial Co-Directors, Ian Markham and Barney Hawkins, with the Bicentennial Campaign associate, Victoria Elie, maintained a steady course all year. Finally, I must thank the exceptional IA team, Wendy Bermudez, Shelagh Casey Brown, Jennifer Greiner, Jeffri Harre, and Meredith Pilling Wied. Without them, we would not have a giving story to tell this fiscal year.

Donors by Giving Society

The following list recognizes all gifts received by Virginia Theological Seminary between July 1, 2020 and June 30, 2021. These gifts came from many sources including our alumni, friends, board members, parishes, dioceses, and foundations. They include gifts to the Annual Fund, the Bicentennial Campaign, Reparations, Campus Residences, Scholarship, and other funds. All donors who made gifts in fiscal year 2021 are included, both living and now deceased. (For a full listing of the special funds to which donations were made, please see page 35.) Combined, these gifts prepare VTS for our third century of service and form the future leaders of the Episcopal Church. We are profoundly grateful for every gift.

Virginia Theological Seminary Endowment

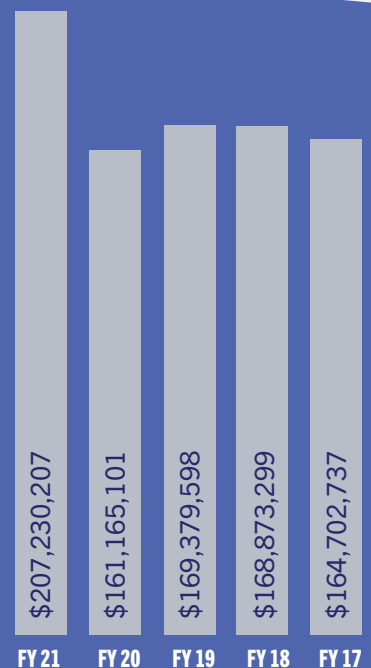

The chart (right) shows the history since fiscal year 2017 of our endowment which is under the stewardship of the Virginia Theological Seminary investment committee of the Board of Trustees. The Board has mandated an annual draw rate of less than five percent of the average rolling 20 quarters' market value.

The percent of the income that goes directly to the unrestricted operating fund is 61 percent. Scholarship and designated funds each get 35 and four (4) percent respectively.

The investment committee is chaired by Elizabeth Cabell Jennings, CFA, CAIA, Senior Vice President, Director of Institutional Investments Foundations and Endowments Specialty Practice at SunTrust Bank.

The Very Rev. Ian S. Markham, Ph.D., Dean and President of VTS is an ex-officio member of the committee.

The investment advisor is Eric Riedlin of Monticello Associates.

VTS Annual Fund History

In FY20, VTS adjusted the Annual Fund goal mid-year and encouraged our donors to support other institutions that are vital to the Episcopal Church and the people of God during COVID-19. Our donors continued to give generous financial and spiritual support to the Annual Fund and the Bicentennial Campaign.

Gifts for the Bishop Payne Library: Impact on a Thinking, Faithful Church

Excitement prevailed on Giving Day in October 2020, as alumni, students, faculty, staff, and friends from around the Church showed their love with gifts, prayers, and messages of inspiration. Together, hundreds of donors gave $82,000 to support renovations to the Bishop Payne Library through the Bicentennial Campaign. This collective effort unlocked more than $41,000 in additional funds for the library renovations through the generosity of The Cabell Foundation and The Mary Morton Parsons Foundation. Today, a renovated Bishop Payne Library is ready to provide resources for present and future researchers, while offering a place for thoughtful study and contemplation for our thinking, faithful Church.

The Butterfly House: Impact Now and in the Future

The Butterfly House is VTS' on-campus child-care facility, licensed in the Commonwealth of Virginia, serving the children of Seminary students, faculty, staff, and the broader community for over 30 years. A dedicated team provides a safe, healthy, nurturing environment for children ages six weeks to five years, positively impacting their development and growth. VTS is thankful not only for the team's dedication to children but also for their generosity. The Butterfly House achieved the highest rate of participation of any VTS department in the Bicentennial Campaign. VTS is grateful that those who have a significant impact through their service also impact VTS' future through their gifts.

The African American Episcopal Historical Collection

The African American Episcopal Historical Collection (AAEHC) collects and preserves materials about African American Episcopalians and makes those resources available both for scholarly research and for the education and edification of the wider community.

In 2002, the Historical Society of the Episcopal Church and the Virginia Theological Seminary agreed to sponsor the AAEHC jointly and work together to preserve the legacy of Black Episcopalians. Today, the AAEHC is the proud caretaker of the materials and other ephemera of almost 90 African American Episcopal clergy, laity, churches, and other organizations.

Now, several of the oldest parishes in the nation are researching and documenting the history of the earliest times when Blacks were regularly in worship – usually as slaves who were owned by white communicants. The histories have traced the times before and just after slavery ended in the US, and the effect of emancipation on the interracial dynamics in the parish. These inquiries have led to discoveries about the resultant parish profile as Churches began to separate physically by race. Those histories are becoming part of the AAEHC.

Gifts to the AAEHC honor and preserve the enormous influence Black Episcopalians have had on the spiritual, intellectual, cultural, and economic life of the church, the nation, and the world. The donors listed below made monetary contributions to the AAEHC in fiscal year 2021. Their contributions are greatly appreciated.

Saints and Stories: Impact on Our Third Century

Through Saints and Stories, VTS' virtual wall of recognition, we honor all the generous donors who have supported our Bicentennial Campaign and we tell the story of our first 200 years. Saints and Stories reminds us that we are part of a huge tapestry of God's work now and in the future. It tells the story of VTS' journey of sin and grace, calling us together to imagine and support our third century. At once both humbling and inspiring, Saints and Stories celebrates all who are coming together to bring about our next 200 years of mission and ministry. We invite you to visit Saints and Stories to see the impact of your gifts and experience the communion of these beloved saints.

The Ronnie A. Yoder Scholarship

The Honorable and Mrs. Ronnie A. Yoder

The 2023 Legacy Society

Since the 1823 founding of Virginia Theological Seminary, a tradition of generosity has enabled the Seminary to prepare the hearts and minds of those who bring the good news of Christ to the world. The gifts of spirit and substance of many helped bring the Seminary into existence. The gifts of others have allowed VTS to grow in ways not imagined by the early founders. VTS is now the strongest Seminary that offers preparation for ministry for lay and ordained alike.

Bequests from planned gifts have helped ensure the long-term financial stability of the Seminary. By including VTS in their will or trusts or by having made life income gifts to the Seminary, many alumni and friends have helped ensure our long-term health.

Those who have let VTS know of their estate plans are members of The 2023 Legacy Society.

If you are interested in becoming a member of the Society, contact Linda L. Dienno at Idienno@vts.edu or 703-461-1717.

We list with gratitude the thoughtful and loving friends who are current members of The 2023 Legacy Society.

Class of 2021 Class Gift: Impact on Reconciliation

Graduating classes have a tradition of making a gift to the Seminary before commencement. Class gifts have ranged from adding to the endowment fund to contributing toward artwork and capital projects. The guiding principle is to find a gift that is a good fit between class interests and VTS need. The Class of 2021 contributed to memorializing enslaved persons and others of African-American descent. This gift supports VTS in acknowledging its role in the racial injustices of the past with a tangible reminder of past and current racial calamity. While at VTS, the class learned of Julia Parker, who in 1844 at age 19, was hired out to the Seminary from Mt. Vernon for three months at a price of $12.00. She is the first enslaved person identified with both a given and surname by the reparations task force. The class hopes Julia Parker is the first of many enslaved people we will know and honor for their work, and that this remembrance will assist us in seeking the face of Christ in others as we strive for love, justice, and reconciliation.

Ways to Give

There are many ways to support VTS through philanthropic giving. No matter the method you choose, or the size of your donation, each gift helps the Seminary form students for ministry.

Write a check

Make your check payable to Virginia Theological Seminary and mail to:
