

Assistant
Trinity Ecumenical Parish
Moneta, VA
Episcopal Diocese of Southwestern Virginia

- Trinity seeks an associate pastor who has a heart for ecumenical ministry in an Episcopal, Lutheran, and Presbyterian congregational setting.
- Candidates should feel called to serve in an active parish composed primarily of retirees from diverse faith backgrounds who are eager to serve the community and beyond. This is a “grassroots” parish where ideas become ministry realities. The parish is located in the Smith Mountain Lake community near Roanoke, VA.
- Successful candidates will be gifted preachers, communicators, teachers, and pastoral care givers.
- The associate will work collaboratively with the Senior Pastor and will help lead worship, preach, teach, provide pastoral care, and share administrative support. Beyond general ministry responsibilities, the associate will have primary responsibility for coordinating parish communications or coordinating faith formation and volunteer support, depending on their gifts and interest.

$62,000

(Parish will also pay half of SECA)

Current deadline: December 16, 2024

Position start date: Flexible, by start of Summer 2025
